PUBLIC COMMENTS

A. Public: None

B. Members:

Joette – The Historical Society of Martin County has always worked together on the House of Refuge with the County. I made a public comment at the Board of County Commissioner (BOCC) meeting because I was very concerned about the agreement not getting approved. Some people are concerned about finances, but the House of Refuge is the oldest building in the county and needs to be saved. Some work needs to be done to explain to the Commissioners about the importance our historic resources.

Douette – Yes, it's important for them to realize the importance.

Joette – The Board of County Commissioners could work with us more for support. Right before the BOCC meeting there was an article in Southern Living Magazine about how amazing the House of Refuge is; it's the last one standing.

Rob – I have invited and given tours to all the commissioners of the House of Refuge.

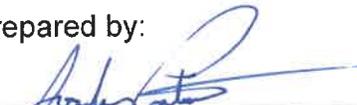

William – The House of Refuge is a jewel of our community.

Douette – There were a lot of great events during Historic Preservation Month. I was impressed by the caliber of events; everything went so well. The Sheriff's Office event was lot of fun. Staff did a great job.
