

Before the Board of County Commissioners
Martin County, Florida

A Proclamation

Honoring Ruth Gran on her 102nd Birthday

- Whereas, Ruth Gran was born on May 11, 1922 (Mother's Day) in Framingham, Massachusetts; and
- Whereas, Ruth married her husband Ray, who served in the Army Air Corps, the day before he was deployed to India in World War II and they were married for over 60 years; and
- Whereas, Ruth worked for the Army paymasters during the war and then worked for the National Park Service in St. Augustine and later, after retirement, in Georgia; and
- Whereas, Ruth has one son, three grandchildren, three great grandchildren and one great great grandchild; and
- Whereas, service to our country has always been important to Ruth and her family as their history of service is extensive. Her father served in WWI, her brother served in the Korean War, her husband served in WWII and her son served during Vietnam.

Now, therefore, be it proclaimed by the Martin County Board of County Commissioners that Ruth Gran is congratulated upon the occasion of her 102nd birthday, and the board extends best wishes to her for many more happy and healthy years.

Presented this Twenty-first Day of May 2024
