

Before the Board of County Commissioners
Martin County, Florida

A Proclamation

Honoring Ana Mercedes Menchero on her 100th Birthday

Whereas, Ana Mercedes Menchero was born in Holguin, Cuba on September 23, 1925; and

Whereas, Ana married Dr. Juan P. Esteve, an up-and-coming lawyer on October 29, 1949; and

Whereas, after vacationing in the United States as a teenager traveling with her grandmother and other visits, including a first exile in 1958, Ana came to stay for good in 1963 to escape the new communist regime in Cuba; and

Whereas, Ana, her husband and five children arrived in Miami on February 13, 1963, moving to Denver, Colorado just a few months later; and

Whereas, Ana worked (for the first time in her life) at the largest bank in Colorado, and later worked as the head of a department at Sears and Roebuck, from where she ultimately retired.

Now, therefore, be it proclaimed by the Martin County Board of County Commissioners that Ana Mercedes Menchero is congratulated upon the occasion of her 100th birthday, and the board extends best wishes to Mrs. Menchero for many more happy and healthy years.

Adopted this Twenty-third Day of September 2025
