COMMENTS

Public (9:05 AM) - Please limit comments to three minutes.

The following members of the public spoke regarding DEPT-4, Town of Sewall's Point septic to sewer project: Daniel Dingman, Julie Pohutsky, Jacque Thurlow Lippisch, David Kurzman, Diane Kumes, and James Traynor.

Derek Powell wished his son in the audience a Happy 14th Birthday. Mr. Powell spoke on the reoccurring issues impacting his property.

Tom Pine addressed transparency and County spending.

Stuart West POA Board Member Wanda Trouba addressed the Stuart West PUD amendment that seeks to include domestic animals. She argued that domestic animals will create a nuisance to the community and are a violation of the bylaws.

Jeff Wittmann advocated to keep the vacant parcel contiguous to the Hamm Property (Hobe Sound Scrub Preserve) undeveloped. He requested that the Board purchase the parcel as a part of the Hobe Sound Scrub Preserve. Mr. Wittmann thanked Commissioner Capps for touring the property with him.

Commissioners

AM

Commissioner Vargas addressed Mr. Pines' concerns regarding consent agenda approvals and transparency. She also addressed the North River Shores dock issue.

Commissioner Capps thanked Jeff Wittmann for being instrumental with the Hobe Sound Scrub Preserve. He requested that the Board prioritize the property purchase. Commissioner Capps offered condolences to the family of long time Hobe Sound resident Eric Wesel.

Chair Heard announced the passing of journalist Sally Swartz. Chair Heard noted that some members of the Board attended the Mariner Sands Club House ribbon cutting.

Vice Chair Ciampi expressed his sympathies for the passing of Eric Wesel and Sally Swartz. Vice Chair Ciampi echoed Commissioner Capp's sentiment to preserve the vacant parcel near the Scrub Preserve; and encouraged staff to get involved in the process. He requested an update on the dock permitting issue in North River Shores. Vice Chair Ciampi mentioned a large paint spill on Indian Street extending to US-1 and the Turnpike; the business responsible has offered to assist the County with cleanup.

Commissioner Hetherington thanked Veterans Services for planning the Veterans Day festivities. She also requested additional information regarding North River Shores. Commissioner Hetherington spoke on Mr. Powell's issue, citing a screening issue near the mobility path.

PM

Chair Heard requested staff's assistance to evaluate neighborhood marketplaces for core properties in Port Salerno. County Attorney Elysse Elder confirmed that Legal will work with Growth Management to bring suggestions before the Board.

County Administrator

AM

County Administrator Don Donaldson advised he will look into the Scrub Preserve property. He announced the request by Oasis Development LLC for Brownfield public hearing on December 9, 2025 and January 26, 2026; the Brownfield public notice disclosure was read for the record.

PM

County Administrator Don Donaldson announced the Public Works Coastal Division sunk a ship off the coast; it will be named the Boo McCuley Artificial Reef. Mr. Donaldson provided an update on the North River Shores dock issue; noting it is a civil matter between the HOA and property owner. County Attorney Elysse Elder assisted with Board questions. Vice Chair Ciampi requested that Legal craft a response to residents.

County Administrator Don Donaldson provided an update on the sale of the Palm City property. Mr. Donaldson requested permission to postpone or extend the closing in lieu of a non-refundable deposit.
