January 2023

Hi Charlie,

I hope you're doing well. And that your new year will be filled with joy and fulfillment in the months ahead.

January has been a painful and violent start to the year, a stark contrast to the month's celebrations of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr and his legacy of non-violence, and the welcoming of the lunar New Year - year of the rabbit, a symbol of hope and resilience.

Please remember - your Library is here for you. A place of information, trusted resources, and comfort. It's a place that forges connection. A place of hope, and action.

Thank you for being part of that, for using and supporting Library resources, and building a community that understands and values the power of libraries.

Next month, we'll share the Foundation's 2022 Impact Report. You and your fellow Library Champions are making a positive impact for children, teens, and adults across LA County, and beyond.

Thank you for your incredible generosity.

I'm always warmed, and often humbled, by your notes - sharing your Library story, why you give, what connects you to your Library.

I've been inundated with notes of thanks, especially for your remarkable Library staff.

They (and I) appreciate you, too, as you'll hear from Community Library Manager Marta Wiggins in this month's Virtual Field Trip to La Crescenta Library.

Who are you? I love to hear your Library stories. Sharing a couple snippets I received...

From Cristina C: Our public library is indeed a lifeline. We check out travel guides and other reading materials. School kids depend on public libraries. They can't do without it. That's why we'd like to support it."

And from Mary Ann R: "I'm an old lady that loves books. Libraries are my favorite places! Thank you for so many to read...especially e-books."

Read on for another My Library Story, from longtime Library Champion and monthly donor Charlie B on why she loves her library and physical books.

And finally, with thanks again for the good you make possible - with your gifts, unfailing hope and resiliency, and action - a list of 10 cool Library resources you may not know about. Enjoy!

Again, thank you. You are marvelous!

Wishing you peace, joy, and prosperity,

Andrea

Andrea Carroll
Executive Director

P.S. You make your Library stronger with your gift. Thank you!

My Library Story: Charlie B on the library, books, and why she gives

Library Champion Charlie B appreciates the Library's Digital Library with its 24/7 access, but prefers physical books and the welcoming staff and place of her local library in Hawthorne.

"I have tried, but have yet to be able to embrace the online, tablet, audible. etc., versions of a book - something about being able to hold the story in my hands makes me feel more connected.

Having an actual library card makes me feel that I will always be "included and welcomed" somewhere special. I give because I want others to have access to and feel the joy that I do!"

With warmth and sincerity,
Charlie B (she/her)
