Professional Experience

Real Insurance Solutions Consulting, LLC

2020 to Present

Principal

Formed a risk and insurance consulting practice based on my extensive industry experience, analytical skills and education. Projects include analysis of industry statutory data, large risk benchmarking, expert witness research, insurance program opportunity/feasibility assessment, insurance entity governance, retainer-assistance for captives, insurance policy drafting, pricing strategies and product distribution.

Independent Insurance Agents & Brokers of America, Inc. (IIABA)

1998 – 2020

President, Big I Advantage, Inc. (IIABA For-Profit Operations)

- Senior Vice President for first 2 years. Promoted to President in November 2000.
- Built the for-profit team from 7 employees into a diverse team of 35 insurance specialists and insurance underwriters supported by dedicated technology, marketing, and insurance accounting staff.
- Created a holding company, and associated Big I Advantage branding strategy to facilitate more effective management, marketing, and compliance of the IIABA's insurance and non-insurance product subsidiaries. Oversaw the addition of investment advisory operations, and was responsible for investment regulatory requirements. Also formed a national risk purchasing group.
- Pursued and obtained individual and entity licenses for property-casualty, life-health, surplus lines, and investment advisory operations. Obtained coverholder status with Lloyds of London.
- Created a licensed reinsurance company (Big "I" Reinsurance Company), and served as its president. Its stock offering was participated in by 43 of 51 state association affiliates.
- Designed and developed a member agency-to-underwriter Internet specialty insurance marketplace (Big "I" Markets) with the necessary underwriting and processing teams.
- Managed the challenges arising from operating an insurance wholesale business and publishing organization, that existed within a national trade association, and that had 51 affiliated state associations, and 20,000 member independent insurance agencies.

Aon Corporation

1992 – 1998

Vice President and Consultant, Risk Management Services, Aon Specialty Group

Built a successful sponsored bank insurance consulting program, from just a few bank consulting assignments a year to over 100 per year. Created and managed the bank property and casualty program known as the Bankers Insurance Center. Supervised two producers, as well as assisting individual banks in entering the insurance business via agency acquisitions, planning joint ventures, and establishing start-up operations within several banks and thrifts.

The Wyatt Company*1987 – 1992Consultant*

Responsible for finding, growing, and carrying out fee-based insurance industry consulting relationships. Gained experience in traditional property/casualty risk management and actuarial projects. Developed a specialty in bank insurance risk management and fee income generation for two large national bank trade associations, and their members. Non-bank consulting included risk management audits, and self-funding studies for public entities, manufacturers, hospitals, and trade associations. Also conducted a wide variety of insurance industry financial analysis studies.

University of Wisconsin-Madison (UW)1986 – 1987Graduate Teaching Assistant

Graduate teaching assistant for the UW's Risk Management department for one academic year. Assisted with teaching the undergraduate Risk Management Major's core risk management course. Responsible for creating class handouts, leading all course discussion and review sessions, and served as substitute course lecturer. Assisted with developing course examinations and conducting student evaluations.

Action Insurance Agency*1983 – 1987Property-Casualty Insurance Agent*

One of four agents in a small independent agency that specialized in hard-to-place vehicle related exposures. Responsibilities included excess and surplus lines business production, and customer service representative duties.

Education and Professional Activities*Master of Business Administration (MBA)

University of Wisconsin-Madison, Risk Management and Finance dual MBA. Completed May 1987.

Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA)

University of Wisconsin-Madison. Completed December of 1983.
