

CALL TO ARTISTS: ARTSFEST 2025 – MARTIN COUNTY CENTENNIAL MURALS

DESCRIPTION:

Martin County's Art in Public Places Program and MartinArts invites visual artists residing in Martin County to participate in a live mural painting experience at ArtsFest 2025! Join us on Saturday, February 8, and Sunday, February 9 at Memorial Park in Downtown Stuart, as we celebrate Martin County's centennial with a unique theme: A Vision of Martin County 100 Years from Now.

We are seeking TBD artists to create imaginative TBD-foot murals that envision Martin County's evolution over the next century. What does the future hold for our landscapes, communities, and culture? Selected artists will bring these futuristic visions to life on TBD-foot murals, live at the festival, offering the community a forward-thinking reflection of our home.

ABOUT MARTIN COUNTY ART IN PUBLIC PLACES PROGRAM:

Launched in 1997, Art in Public Places, a Martin County Board of County Commissioners program, serves the community by acquiring works of art sponsored by the County to promote the spiritual, intellectual, and aesthetic enrichment of Martin County through public art. For additional information, please see Chapter 13, General Ordinances, Martin County Code, Art in Public Places, Ordinance No. 1103.
