A Proclamation

Recognizing National Financial Awareness Day in Martin County, Florida

Whereas, the mission of Junior Achievement of the Palm Beaches & Treasure Coast is to inspire and prepare young people for success through transformative programs that promote financial literacy, work and career readiness, and entrepreneurship; and

Whereas, Junior Achievement equips students with essential skills for today’s world of work, such as communication, problem-solving, financial decision-making, and professionalism, while introducing them to a wide range of career pathways; and

Whereas, through hands-on, volunteer-led immersive experiences like JA Career Exploration Fairs, Junior Achievement connects students with local business owners and career professionals to bring career possibilities to life and build real-world confidence; and

Whereas, this observance highlights an exciting collaboration between Junior Achievement and the Martin County School District to prepare students for future opportunities by delivering career readiness programs to every elementary and middle school during the 2025–2026 school year; and

Whereas, citizens are encouraged to support and celebrate the efforts of Junior Achievement of the Palm Beaches & Treasure Coast in preparing students with the tools they need to thrive in the workforce and make informed financial decisions throughout life.

Now, therefore, be it proclaimed by the Martin County Board of County Commissioners that August 14, 2025 is National Financial Awareness Day in Martin County, Florida. Further, the Board affirms its commitment to youth education and workforce development and recognizes the vital role that early financial literacy and real-world skill-building play in preparing students for lifelong success.
