

Before the Board of County Commissioners Martin County, Florida

A Proclamation

Declaring Historic Preservation Month in Martin County, Florida

- Whereas, historic preservation is an effective tool for revitalizing neighborhoods, fostering local pride and maintaining community character; and
- Whereas, historic preservation is relevant for communities across the nation, both urban and rural, and for Americans of all ages, all walks of life and all ethnic backgrounds; and
- Whereas, 2025 marks Martin County's 100th anniversary, a milestone that highlights the importance of preserving the county's rich history, cultural heritage and architectural legacy for future generations; and
- Whereas, historic preservation plays an important role in our lives, and we should celebrate the contributions made by dedicated individuals in helping to preserve the tangible aspects of the heritage that has shaped us as a people; and
- Whereas, the Martin County Historic Preservation Board has planned events throughout Martin County during the month of May to increase awareness and encourage public participation in historic preservation efforts to protect our local treasures.

Now, therefore, be it proclaimed by the Martin County Board of County Commissioners that May 2025 is Historic Preservation Month in Martin County, Florida. Further, the board calls upon the people of Martin County to join their fellow citizens across the United States in recognizing and participating in this special observance as the county celebrates its centennial year.
