USPS Considers Retail Service Relocation For Port Salerno Main Post Office

Invites Community to Comment Through May 2

PORT SALERNO, FL — The U.S. Postal Service is considering relocating the retail services provided at the Port Salerno Main Post Office, located at 4755 SE Dixie Hwy, Port Salerno, FL 34992, to a new location within a two-mile radius as close as possible to this facility. The relocation is due to lease non-renewal.

The Postal Service mailed a postcard to individuals who live or work in Port Salerno, inviting them to share their comments on the relocation. Individuals should mail their comments by the deadline of May 2, 2026, to the following address:

ATTN: Port Salerno, FL Main Post Office Relocation
United States Postal Service
P.O. Box 27497
Greensboro, NC 27498-1103

After the 45-day comment period, the Postal Service will consider the comments received. Following that consideration, the Postal Service will make a final decision to proceed with, modify, or cancel the proposal.

Currently, customers may continue conducting retail transactions, including mailing letters and shipping packages, at the Port Salerno Main Office. Hours of operation are Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The Port Salerno Post Office is closed on Saturday and Sunday.

Customers are reminded that www.usps.com is the Post Office that is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Many postal transactions may be conducted on this website.

The United States Postal Service is an independent federal establishment, mandated to be self-financing and to serve every American community through the affordable, reliable and secure delivery of mail and packages to more than 170 million addresses six and often seven days a week. Overseen by a bipartisan Board of Governors, the Postal Service is celebrating its 250th year of service to customers amidst a network modernization plan aimed at restoring long-term financial sustainability, improving service, and maintaining the organization as one of America's most valued and trusted brands.

The Postal Service generally receives no tax dollars for operating expenses and relies on the sale of postage, products and services to fund its operations.
