

Before the Board of County Commissioners
Martin County, Florida

A Proclamation

Celebrating 100 Years of Service by First Baptist Church to Martin County, Florida

Whereas, First Baptist Church provides for the spiritual needs of its members and the community in Martin County; and

Whereas, the church provides day care and after care services to students who attend the church school and live in the community; and

Whereas, the church ministers to middle and high school youth who attend the many schools in Martin County and participate in youth group activities; and

Whereas, First Baptist Church provides for the needs of seniors in Martin County and the needs of children in Vacation Bible School, facilitating spiritual growth and offering opportunities for participants to make crafts and express their creativity; and

Whereas, the church provides Awanna Clubs, where children study scripture and undertake special studies each week to improve their knowledge of the Bible and earn “Awanna Bucks” for their accomplishments.

Now, therefore, be it proclaimed by the Martin County Board of County Commissioners that First Baptist Church is celebrating 100 years of service to the Martin County community.

Presented this Eighteenth Day of November 2025
