Article 10.2.B.3. Article 10, Development Review Procedures; Land Development Regulations; Martin County Code

10.2.B. Application submittal for development approval. Applications for development approval shall comply with the following described procedures:

1. Initiation. A development application shall be filed with the County Administrator by the owner or other person having a power of attorney from the owner to make the application.

2. Acceptance of the application. A development application will be received for processing on any working day.

3. Verification of property ownership. The documents required below are required prior to an application being determined complete. After the application is determined to be complete, the applicant has a continuing obligation to provide revised documents to reflect any changes to the information provided that may occur before and as of the date of the final public hearing or final action on the application.

a. Proof of ownership must be provided for any application for any type of development order. The applicant shall provide a copy of the recorded deed for the subject property, and shall certify any subsequent transfers of interests in the property. If the applicant is not the owner of record, the applicant is required to report its interest in the subject property.

b. The applicant must disclose the names and addresses of each and every natural person or entity with any legal or equitable interest in the property of the proposed development, including all individuals, children, firms, associations, joint adventures, partnerships, estates, trusts, business trusts, syndicates, fiduciaries, corporations, limited liability company, professional associations and all other groups or combinations.

c. For those entities that are a firm, association, joint adventure, partnership, estate, trust, business trust, syndicate, fiduciary, corporation, limited liability company, professional associations and all other groups or combinations thereof, every natural person or entity that enjoys a legal or equitable interest in property of the proposed development shall be disclosed including but not limited to any partners, members, shareholders, trustees, and stockholders.

d. The disclosure required in b. and c. above shall not apply to companies that are publicly traded and to consultants and contractors who may perform professional services or work related to the property.

e. In addition, the disclosure must include those having any interest in a contract for sale of the property, or a conveyance of any interest in the property, including but not limited to, real estate brokers and salespersons; and any and all mortgagees of the property.

f. The applicant must list all other applications for which they have an interest as defined in subsection b. and c. above that is currently pending before Martin County. The list shall include any development applications, waiver applications, road opening applications, and lien reduction requests.

g. Any development order, including applications for Planned Unit Developments which was granted or approved based on false or incomplete disclosure will be presumed to have been fraudulently induced and will be deemed by the Martin County Board of County Commissioners to be void ab initio and set aside, repealed, or vacated.
