SALVADOR C. OROFINO

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY 2022

Salvador C. Orofino's career spans twenty years as a legal advisor, entrepreneur, teacher and investor.

His professional practice centered on planning for the integration of successful outcomes for the individual, the family and business. Salvador's experience provided insight at the cutting edge of technology-as-change and the mega/ultra/high-net worth family for wealth preservation and risk management.

Salvador spent ten years advising high-visibility individuals and families on wealth preservation, risk management and wealth enterprise creation. He acted as Chief Legal Officer for a highly successful lifestyle brand, served as Chief Privacy Officer as well as led practice groups focused on data privacy and digital assets for a global law firm. Salvador has also been the advisor-of-choice for digital estate planning and asset protection for private banks and family offices. He is co-authoring a book for financial advisors and their clients entitled "Future-Proofing Asset Protection: Bringing Integrated Estate Planning into the Modern Era."

A native of Seattle, Washington, Salvador received his undergraduate degree from the Jackson School of International Studies at the University of Washington (1997), his juris doctorate at the University of Arizona (2001) and was a member of the inaugural Pocket MBA for Lawyers at Boston University (2004). Salvador is fluent in Spanish and trained in Portuguese.

Salvador believes in supporting policy, investment and practice improvement for the Earth's natural systems. Currently, he is Strategic Development Chair for The Loxa-Lucie Headwaters Initiative, a drive to conserve and restore vital ecosystems in Martin County, Florida. He has been 1% for the Planet's Florida business leader and given 1% of his companies' annual revenues to environmental causes for 15 consecutive years.
