A Proclamation

Declaring 4-H Week in Martin County, Florida

- Whereas, 4-H is America’s largest youth development organization, having supported almost six million youth across the country thus far; and
- Whereas, 4-H has helped youth in Martin County become confident, independent, resilient and compassionate leaders; and
- Whereas, 4-H is delivered by Cooperative Extension – a community of more than 100 public universities across the nation that provides experiences where young people learn by doing hands-on projects in areas including health, science, agriculture and citizenship; and
- Whereas, National 4-H Week showcases the incredible experiences that 4-H offers young people, and highlights the remarkable 4-H youth in Martin County who work each day to make a positive impact on those around them; and
- Whereas, 4-H’s network of 600,000 volunteers and 3,500 professionals provides caring and supportive mentoring to all 4-H’ers, helping them to grow into true leaders, entrepreneurs and visionaries.

Now, therefore, be it proclaimed by the Martin County Board of County Commissioners that October 7-13 is 4-H Week in Martin County, Florida. Further, the board encourages all of our citizens to recognize the 4-H organization for the significant impact they have made and continue to make by empowering youth with the skills they need to lead for a lifetime.

Presented this Ninth Day of October 2018
