How bad is it?

Samples taken this week at sites in Martin County — Leighton

The Florida Department of Health in St. Lucie County issued a warning Thursday to stay out of the North Fork of the St. Lucie River at two sites in Port St. Lucie, much like this warning posted in July 2018 at Leighton Park on the river in Palm City.

TYLER TREADWAY/TCPALM

Park on the St. Lucie River in Palm City, Sandsprit Park on the river in Port Salerno and the Stuart Sandbar in the Indian River Lagoon between Sewall's Point and Sailfish Point — were all in the acceptable range.
