NEW BUSINESS

Agenda Item: 22-0894, Art in Public Places - Power Point Presentation Update

Susan Kores, Office of Community Development Manager, presented an AIPP PowerPoint Presentation that included art inventory, maintenance, Martin Murals new program, budget, branding, ArtsFest, and upcoming art pieces.

- B. Capps How is the $10,000.00 broken-down for ArtsFest?
- S. Kore It's a sponsorship that includes event activities, booth, and signage.

Agenda Item: 22-0890, Art in Public Places - Project Updates

Susan Kores, Office of Community Development Manager, presented the report highlighting the following projects: Martin Murals, Serenity installation at the Blake Library, AIPP Inventory, and Rio Benches and Bike Racks.

- R. Kennedy How much money has gone towards the pedestal in Rio?
- S. Kores I will bring that back up in the next meeting, but some of it was funded by the Rio Civic Club and Rio's Creative Placemaking.
- R. Sentell Do we have a location where there is artwork being stored away when not being used?
- S. Kores There is a facility on the corner of Dixie Highway and Indian Street that belongs to the Parks and Recreation Department and we have Wind Games, an artwork that was at Halpatiokee Park, currently being stored there. Other than Wind Games, the rest of the art pieces are out, and a storage location is not needed.
- R. Sentell Does AIPP have a map of all the art inventory in Martin County?
- S. Kores On the Martin County website, AIPP has a page where you can take a tour of all the pieces and their locations. Staff keeps it updated with pictures, location addresses and inventory information.
