BACKGROUND/RELATED STRATEGIC GOAL:

ISSUES:

The revisions to the attached draft ordinance included the following:

- Amending Section 9.1. Definitions to meet existing conditions and to achieve consistency with Florida State Statutes
- Changing the name Animal Care and Control Officer to Animal Services Officer
- Requiring an animal be of at least six (6) months of age for the issuance of an animal license and to meet the new rabies vaccination requirements
- Providing stricter requirements for transporting animals on public roadways
- Strengthening the process for the determination of a “Dangerous Dog”

LEGAL SUFFICIENCY REVIEW:

This is a legislative matter. Legislative decisions are those in which the local government formulates policy rather than applying specific rules to a particular situation. A local government’s approval or denial of an issue in its legislative capacity is typically subject to the fairly debatable standard of review. Fairly debatable means that the government’s action must be upheld if reasonable minds could differ as to the propriety of the decision reached. Decisions subject to the fairly debatable standard of review need only be rationally related to a legitimate public purpose, such as the health, safety, and welfare of the public, to be valid. Given this broad discretion, only decisions that are arbitrary and capricious or illegal are subject to serious legal challenge.
