BACKGROUND/RELATED STRATEGIC GOAL:

On September 12, 2017, staff brought a list of proposed County owned properties to the Board of County Commissioners for approval as surplus. Staff was directed on two of the parcels presented, Hawthorne Street and Railway Avenue, to prepare an Agenda item to offer the property to an affordable housing non-profit, with costs to be borne by the purchaser. These properties were placed on the affordable housing inventory list, as required by Florida Statute 125.379, on November 28, 2017.

Railway Avenue - 8 Lots

Lots were purchased to construct Railway Avenue. As directed by the Board, these lots were presented to the Port Salerno Neighborhood Advisory Committee (NAC) for input. The NAC recommended that the property be offered to Habitat for Humanity to build affordable single-family housing. The Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) motioned to move the properties to the affordable housing list with no additional recommendation.

8. Hawthorne Street - 10 Lots

Lots were purchased as part of a stormwater retrofit project. As directed by the Board, these lots were presented to the Golden Gate NAC for input. The NAC recommended that the property be offered to Habitat for Humanity to build affordable single-family housing. The CRA motioned to move the property to the affordable housing list and honor the request of the Golden Gate NAC to recommend that the property be offered to Habitat for Humanity.

Affordable and Workforce housing development and construction can and is being accomplished by a variety of non-profit housing organizations nationwide. The County and the CRA have been approached by multiple parties interested in providing this service. Staff suggests that the County utilize a competitive process in the disposition of its surplus property to achieve the most fair, equitable and best product in the design and construction of housing for our residents.

Proposed projects will need to comply with Martin County's Land Development Regulations and demonstrate consistency with the area's Community Redevelopment Plan by including the following elements:

- Architectural style complementing the neighborhood
- A front porch with parking in the rear
- Highest density possible
- One or two story homes, town homes or apartments of CBS construction

Staff recommends that the properties be offered, through a competitive RFP process, to affordable housing non-profits for the development and construction of permanent affordable housing pursuant to Section 125.379, Florida Statutes. A separate agenda item will be presented to the Board of County Commissioners for final consideration and adoption of a resolution transferring said properties to the successful respondent(s).
